DO YOU KNOW WHAT YOUR DONATION LOOKS LIKE?

PRIDE

Pauline's three-year-old twins, both experiencing learning delays, accessed a range of United Way early-years and special-needs programs. Thanks to people like you, they're confident and school-ready, and mom couldn't be more proud.

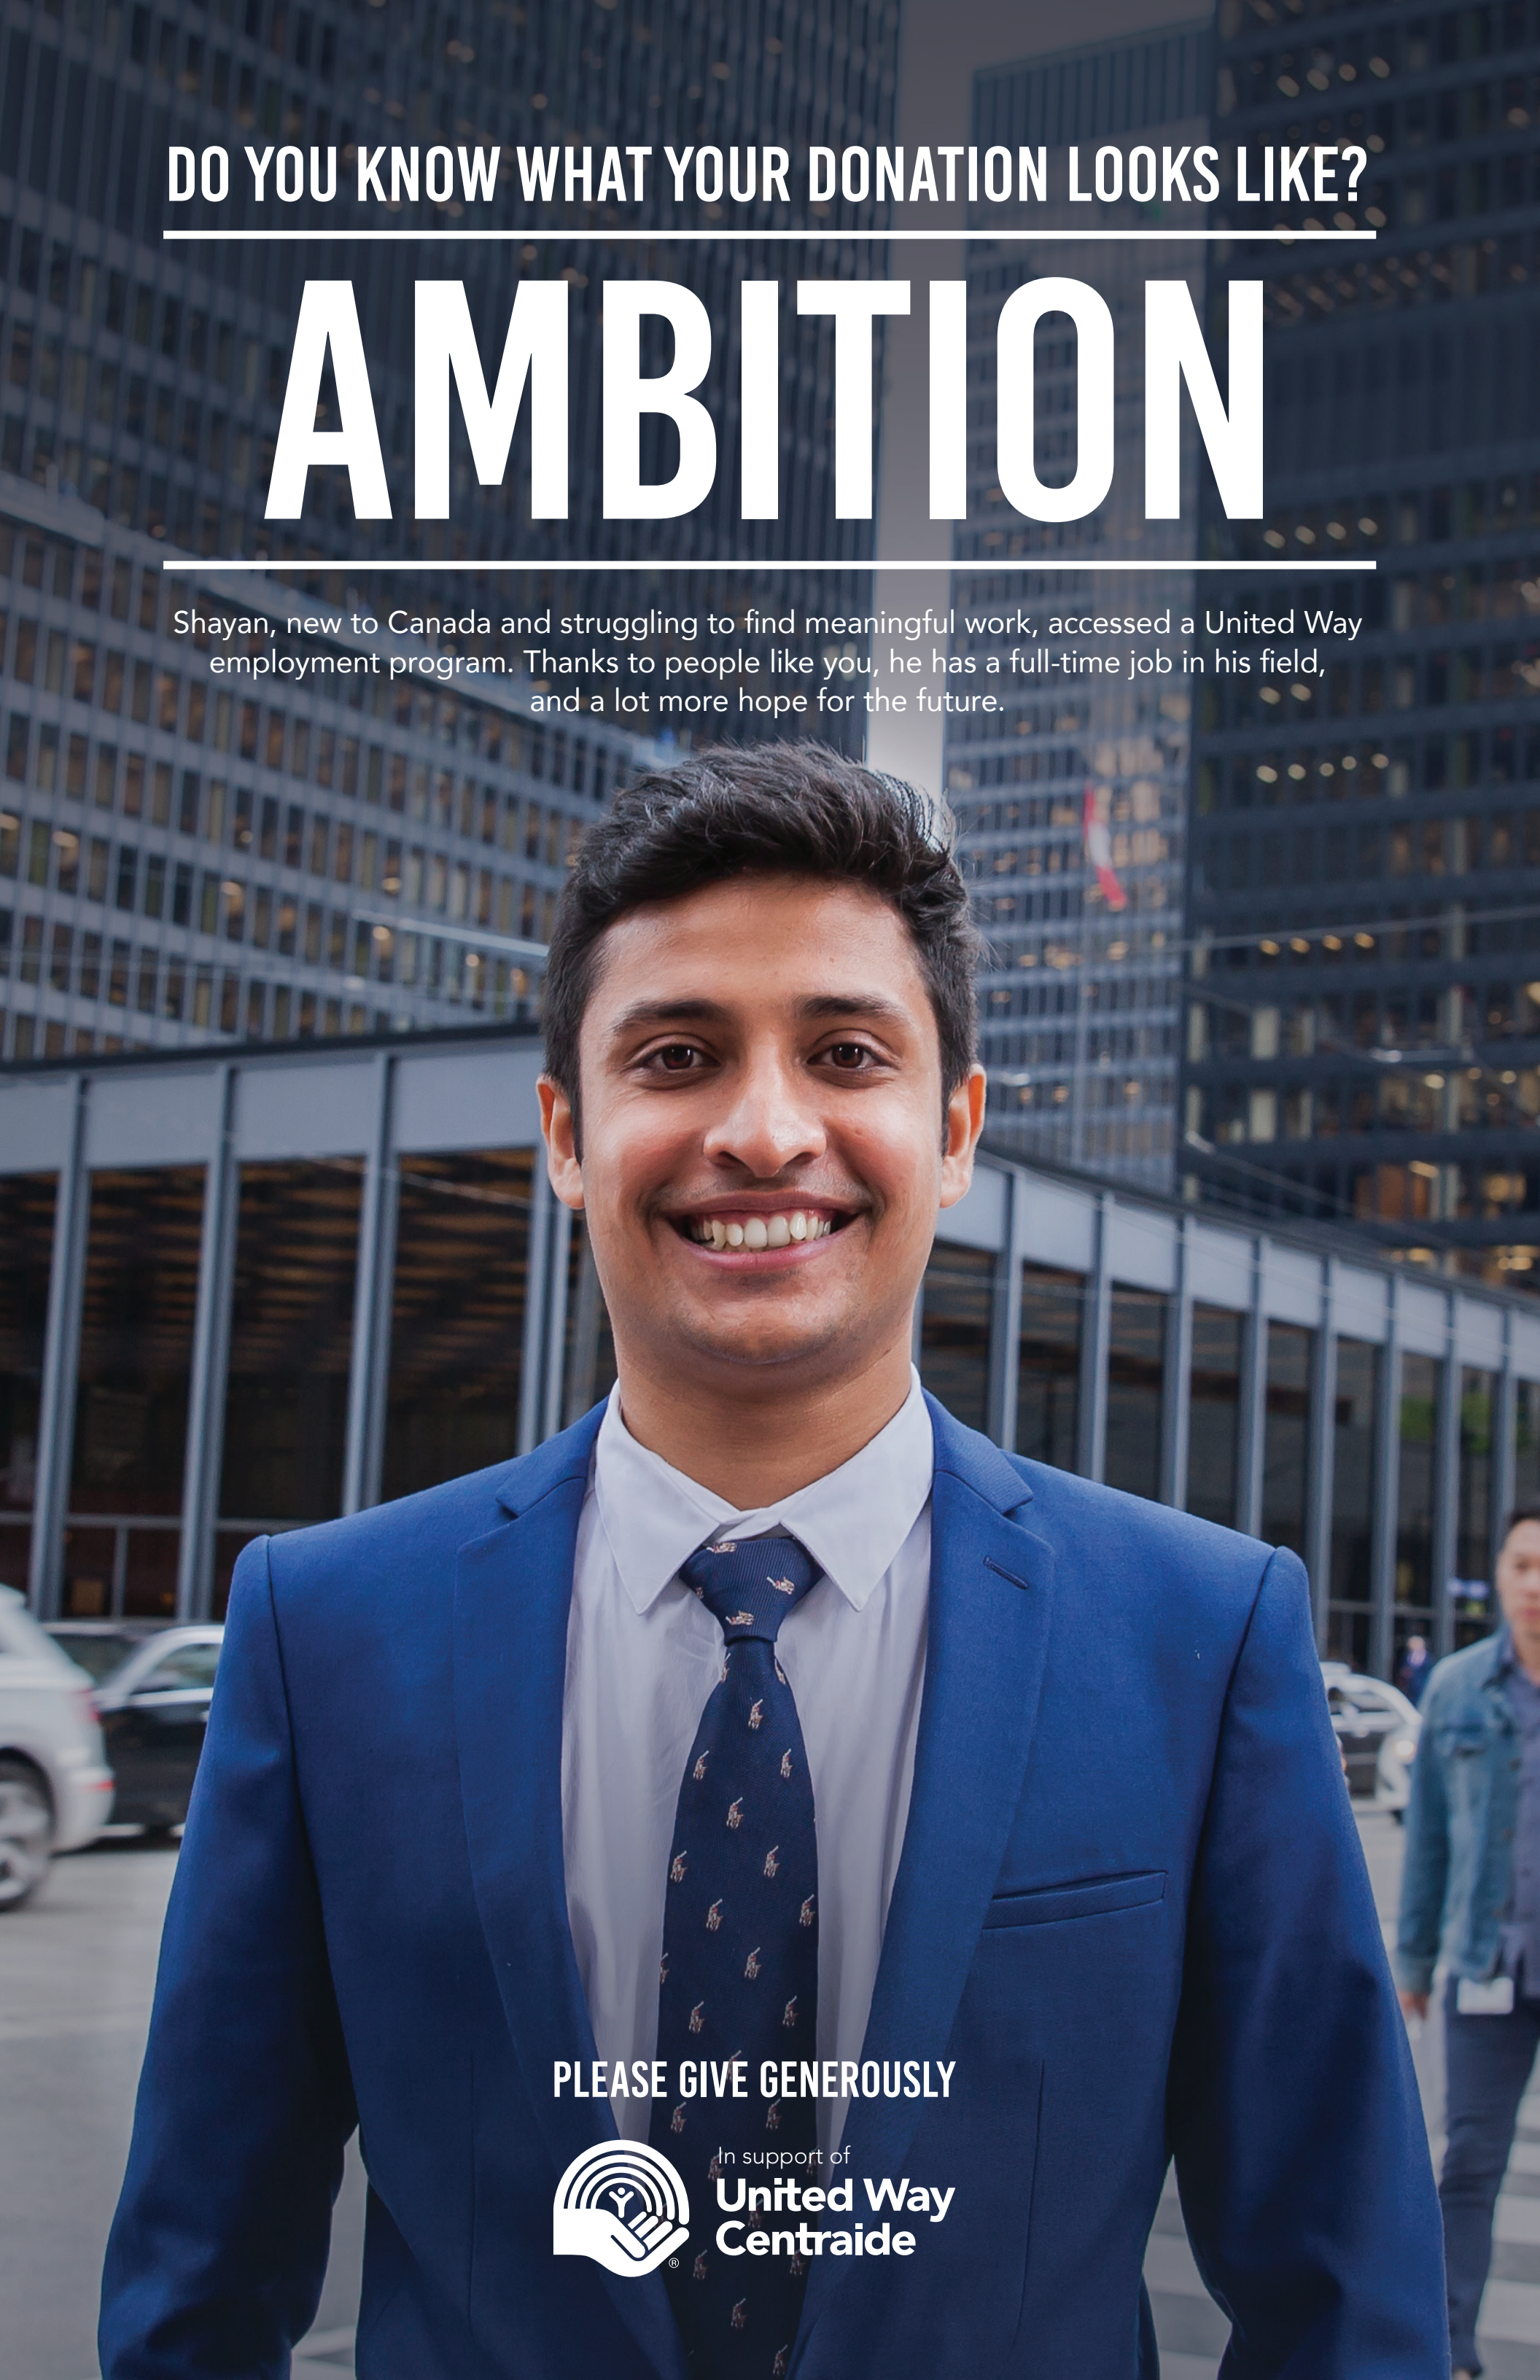
PLEASE GIVE GENEROUSLY

In support of
United Way
Centraide

DO YOU KNOW WHAT YOUR DONATION LOOKS LIKE?

AMBITION

Shayan, new to Canada and struggling to find meaningful work, accessed a United Way employment program. Thanks to people like you, he has a full-time job in his field, and a lot more hope for the future.



PLEASE GIVE GENEROUSLY

In support of
United Way
Centraide

DO YOU KNOW WHAT YOUR DONATION LOOKS LIKE?

HOPE

Rama and Fares, forced to flee their home in war-devastated Syria, accessed a range of United Way settlement programs. Thanks to people like you, they're successfully navigating their new community, equipped with a solid sense of belonging.

PLEASE GIVE GENEROUSLY

In support of
United Way
Centraide

DO YOU KNOW WHAT YOUR DONATION LOOKS LIKE?

CONFIDENCE

Alasdair, who suddenly lost his job and couldn't afford food, visited a United Way drop-in meal program. Thanks to people like you, he has a new job and is volunteering in the same kitchen that helped him turn his life around.

PLEASE GIVE GENEROUSLY

In support of

United Way Centraide

DO YOU KNOW WHAT YOUR DONATION LOOKS LIKE?

BELONGING

Angie, following the unexpected death of her husband, accessed a United Way seniors' program. Thanks to people like you, she has a newfound community, bringing vital opportunities to socialize and a whole new sense of happiness.

PLEASE GIVE GENEROUSLY

In support of
United Way
Centraide